Three dead in Wilson shooting

<http://abclocal.go.com/wtvd/story?section=news/local&id=7194052>

WILSON (WTVD) -- Deputies are investigating a shooting at a home on Iroquois Road in a subdivision off Weaver Road in northeast Wilson.

Two men and a woman are dead.

Deputies say an ex-boyfriend shot 24-year-old Paola Aguilera Ayada's new boyfriend Miguel Guerra. She ran out of the house, and the man followed. He shot and killed her before turning the gun on himself. The shooter has not yet been identified.

Investigators say they're looking for the man's pickup truck, which was not at the scene. They've not ruled out the possibility someone else may have been involved. The truck is a dark blue Dodge extended cab with North Carolina tag YSN6247.

Ayada was the mother of four children. Deputies say the shooter was the father of three of them. Ayada and Guerra worked together on the night shift at a tobacco factory. They had just gotten off work when the shooting happened. None of the children were present at the time.

Victim is identified as Russian national

Investigation leads to arrests, deportation

<http://www.jdnews.com/news/investigation-71566-agencies-law.html>

PELETIER — A case of collaboration resulted in the arrest of three Carteret County residents and the deportation of a Yugoslavia man.

The Emerald Isle Police Department, Carteret County Sheriff's Office and N.C. Probation and Parole worked together on an investigation that led them Wednesday night to a home in western Carteret County, where they found more than suspects in a larceny case.

Arrested were: Kevin Mallette, 36; Renee Zeller, 29; Dragan Vukicevic, 48, all of Stoney Brook Drive, Peletier; and Richard "Richie" Echavez, 18, of 105 Stoney Brook Drive, according to a news release from the Carteret County Sheriff's Office.

On Wednesday night, investigators arrived at the residence on Stoney Brook Drive with arrest warrants for Mallette and Zeller on charges of larceny and possession of stolen property related to a previous investigation by Emerald Isle police.

Emerald Isle Chief Bill Hargett said the charges against Mallette and Zeller stem from an investigation into a larceny from a construction site, but investigators also had information about suspected activity that brought them together on the case.

"That's what happens when you work together; you get a lot done," he said.

A search of the residence revealed narcotics and resulted in the apprehension of Vukicevic, an illegal alien from Yugoslavia.

Vukicevic gave authorities the fictitious name of Thomas O'Neal but was later identified after being fingerprinted at the Emerald Isle Police Department using its Automated Fingerprint Identification system. Investigators received a identification on the fingerprint and information indicating that Vukicevic was to be detained for deportation, the news release said.

Vukicevic spent the night in custody at the Carteret County Jail and was transferred to U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement Thursday morning

As a result of the narcotics found, Echavez was charged with possession of marijuana, possession of a Schedule II narcotic, and underage consumption of alcohol.

5 get prison in Columbus drug case

<http://www.fayobserver.com/Articles/2010/01/08/966490>

Five men were sentenced to federal prison Monday following an investigation into drug trafficking in three counties.

Lorenzo Jaimes-Cruz, 33; Fredy Jaimes-Cruz, 26; Saul Cavillo-Rojas, 26; Adolfo Jaimes-Cruz, 33; and Genaro Lara-Salgado, 32; all lived in Hallsboro in Columbus County and were Mexican nationals who were in the country illegally, according to a release from U.S. Attorney George E.B. Holding.

They were charged with trafficking powder cocaine, crack cocaine and marijuana throughout southeastern North Carolina from 2002 to 2008, the release said.

Lorenzo Jaimes-Cruz was sentenced to 35 years and five months and Fredy Jaimes-Cruz was sentenced to 22 years and six months in prison.

Cavillo-Rojas and Adolfo Jaimes-Cruz were each sentenced to 20 years, eight months. And Lara-Salgado was sentenced to 15 years.

Each defendant also received five years of supervised release following their prison terms, according to the release.

Following an investigation by the federal Bureau of Immigration and Customs Enforcement, the State Bureau of Investigation and sheriff's offices in New Hanover, Columbus and Bladen counties, the five men were indicted in May. Months later, a jury found all five defendants guilty of conspiring to distribute and possession with intent to distribute five kilograms or more of cocaine; aiding and abetting possession with the intent to distribute five kilograms or more of cocaine; aiding and abetting possession of a firearm in furtherance of a drug-trafficking offense; aiding and abetting the maintenance of a drug-involved premise for the purpose of distributing cocaine; and possession of a firearm by an alien illegally and unlawfully in the United States.

In addition to those charges, Fredy Jaimes-Cruz was found guilty of eluding examination and inspection by immigration officers, while all other defendants pleaded guilty to that charge prior to trial. Lorenzo Jaimes-Cruz was found guilty of aiding and abetting the distribution of 500 grams or more of cocaine and maintaining a drug-involved premise for the purpose of storing and distributing cocaine, according to the release. Cavillo-Rojas pleaded guilty to that charge prior to trial.

Brothers accused in Pittsboro slaying

http://www.newsobserver.com/news/crime_safety/story/275517.html

PITTSBORO -- Chatham County investigators have charged two Raleigh brothers with murdering a Pittsboro man who was found in his burned home last September.

Firefighters found a body Sept. 15 inside a mobile home at 638 Mitchell's Chapel Road. The body, later identified as Martin Catalan Uriostegui, 33, had been shot in the head with a small caliber gun. The fire had been intentionally set, according to county fire marshal Tom Bender.

Investigators, working with the State Bureau of Investigation over the past three months, charged Manuel Nunez Garcia, 23, of 3244 Apt. A Calumet Drive in Raleigh with murder, the Chatham County Sheriff's Office said Friday.

After interviewing Garcia on Thursday, investigators questioned his brother, Luis Antonio Nunez Garcia, 33, of 4304 Red Tail Court in Raleigh and also charged him in the killing.

Investigators think the killing was drug related and not the result of gang activity, according to the sheriff's office.

Both men were charged with first-degree murder and arson.

8 Sentenced to Federal Prison for Trafficking 4 tons of Marijuana

<http://www.gastongazette.com/news/tons-42332-marijuana-large.html>

The last defendant in a large-scale conspiracy to traffic a total of more than 4 tons of marijuana since 2000 was sentenced today in U.S. District Court in Charlotte, according to a release from the U.S. Attorney's Office.

Sharu Bey, 41, of Lincolnton, was sentenced today in Charlotte to 27 years of federal imprisonment. During the course of the Organized Crime Drug Enforcement Task Force investigation, code-named "Operation Weed Wacker," which began in 2007, law enforcement also seized for forfeiture more than $1.3 million in drug proceeds, and several firearms and vehicles, according to the release.

The conspiracy ended on March 22, 2007, when law enforcement officials seized more than 1 ton of marijuana delivered by an informant to a Charlotte warehouse.

- Sharu Bey, also known as "Jeffrey Lewis," 41, of Lincolnton, North Carolina, was found guilty at trial and received a sentence of 324 months for his role over several years in the marijuana trafficking conspiracy and for possessing a firearm as a convicted felon.

- Ruben Ortiz Barraza, also known as "Ruben Barraza-Ortiz," 36, of Pharr, Texas, and Ruben Noyola Garcia, 34, of San Juan, Texas, were also found guilty at trial for the marijuana trafficking conspiracy related to the ton of marijuana delivered to Charlotte in March 2007, and were sentenced for that conduct, as well as for similar loads of marijuana delivered to Durham, NC, and Indianapolis, Indiana, in the first half of 2007.

Barraza was sentenced to more than 24 years imprisonment, and Garcia received more than 23 years.

- Patrick Schwenke, 56, of Fort Mill, S.C., pleaded guilty to the marijuana trafficking conspiracy and to possessing a firearm during and in relation to the drug trafficking offense.

Schwenke received a sentence of six years.

- Juan Carlos Sanchez-Solorzano, 39, of Mexico, Roberto Carlos Albaarellano, 31, of Mexico, Juan C. Garza, 32, of Alamo, Texas, and Ulises Partidosoto, 26, of Mexico, pleaded guilty to the marijuana trafficking conspiracy.

CARY -- A woman was arrested after witnesses told Cary police officers she put her baby behind a tire on her husband's car to keep him from driving off after an argument.

Loan Nguyen, 38, was charged Wednesday with one count each of misdemeanor child abuse and assault on a child under 12 years old.

Cary police officials said Nguyen and her husband, Vite Ly, 37, were arguing at their home at 101 Sweet Sire Way in Cary when he decided to leave. Nguyen, who was holding the baby, set the child behind one of the vehicle's tires.

Before Ly pulled off, a witness hollered to get his attention. He got out of the car and retrieved the baby.

Cary officials said more charges could be filed after an investigation.

Raleigh shooting victim identified

http://www.newsobserver.com/news/local_state/story/79966.html?storylink=mirelated

The victim of Wednesday night's shooting near 2200 East Millbrook Road in Raleigh has been identified as Kim Ngong Thi Nguyen, 50. Officers charged her brother, Hung Van Nguyen, 47, in the case, Raleigh police said.

Raleigh police spokesman Jim Sughrue said Thursday evening an investigation determined that the suspect also fired shots at a second victim, identified as David Tran, 47. Tran is related to the victim and the suspect.

The suspect was charged with two counts of attempted murder, Sughrue said.

Police responded to a call about shots fired in the area shortly after 8 p.m. At the scene they found a woman shot in the leg and hip.

Nguyen was found a short time later in a wooded area nearby and taken into custody. The incident stemmed from an ongoing dispute, police said.

Four teens charged in attempted murder

http://www.news-record.com/content/2010/01/10/article/four_teens_charged_in_attempted_murder

ASHEBORO – Four Winston-Salem teens were charged with attempted murder of an Asherboro family.

Each of these four boys face three counts of attempted murder:

Christian Dominguez, 19, of 1505 Lomond St.

Mario Dejesus Navarro Cruz, 17, of 1433 Hutton Sts

Luis Miquel Martinez of 328 E. Divenshire St.

Raul Benitez Jr, 17, of 338 Barnes Road

On Saturday, Randolph County sheriff's deputies responded to 1722 Stallion Trail in Asheboro on an armed robbery call at about 5 p.m.

According to the 32-year-old victim, Evaristo Hernandez, he and his teenage nieces were returning from a flea market in Monroe where he is a vendor. As one of the females got out of the vehicle to unlock the gate at the end of the drive, three males dressed in dark clothing and with faces covered approached the vehicle. One of the males was armed with a handgun.

The female that had opened the gate was knocked to the ground and according to victim statements the armed suspect fired shots from the handgun. No one was injured and no property was taken.

The suspects left the area in a full-size dark in color SUV. The victims were able to give a description of the vehicle to the 911 operator. A responding patrol deputy spotted a vehicle matching the description just a few miles away and stopped the vehicle. Four suspects were taken into custody.

Police: Store robber caught with the goods

Three rape, kidnapping suspects in US illegally

<http://www.wncn.com/news/local/Three-arrests-made-in-Hickory-kidnapping-rape-81180862.html>

HICKORY, N.C.—The U.S. Department of Immigration and Customs Enforcement has confirmed that the three men arrested and charged with rape in a weekend attack are in this country illegally

ATM video helped police catch three men who police say raped, robbed and dumped a woman on a road in Hickory.

Police say it was not a random crime because one of the suspects knew the victim due to her beauty salon business.

All three suspects, Fernando Eddy Barrios-Ortiz, Milon Estuardo Barrios-Ortiz and Carlos Andreas Corenza Zeledon are all charged with 1st degree rape, robbery with a firearm, 1st degree sexual assault and kidnapping.

Police say the men yanked her out of her car, put a bag over her head, forced her into their car, put a gun to her head and demanded her ATM card and PIN number.

The woman says they made five consecutive withdrawals totaling more than 700 dollars.

"From there, she reported she was taken to another location where she was sexually assaulted," says Hickory Police Chief Tom Adkins.

Although the Barrios-Ortiz brothers were Guatemalan nationals and did not have a legal right to work in this country, both were employed at area McDonald's restaurants at the time of the attack.

State's First 'Super Meth Lab' Busted in Surry County

<http://www.wxii12.com/news/22205791/detail.html>

MOUNT AIRY, N.C. -- The first "super methamphetamine lab" ever discovered in North Carolina was busted Dec. 16 in Mount Airy, state Attorney General Roy Cooper said Monday.

During that bust, 32.8 pounds of meth was seized and three suspects were arrested. A super lab is capable of producing more than 10 pounds of meth at a time.

The meth in the Mount Airy case had been trucked from Mexico to Surry County, where it was undergoing a final cooking process to become finished meth, Cooper said.

The lab was similar to four super labs recently raided near Atlanta. The case is still under investigation, Cooper said.

The first such lab was discovered in eastern North Carolina, but more recently similar labs were found in Caldwell, Lincoln and Graham counties.

Two arrested after 10-month drug probe

<http://www.charlotteobserver.com/breaking/story/1182796.html>

STATESVILLE

Iredell County sheriff's investigators have arrested and charged two Statesville men after a 10-month undercover drug investigation.

Rudolfo Cornejo-Cruz and Francisco Torres Romero are in the Iredell County jail today on charges of trafficking cocaine and conspiracy to traffic cocaine.

The cocaine had a street value of about $200,000, Sheriff Phil Redmond said. Narcotics investigators also seized $7,200 in cash, Redmond said.

Traffic stop leads to multiple drug charges

<http://clintonnc.com/bookmark/5565257>

A routine traffic stop in Newton Grove Wednesday afternoon led to the seizure of 454 grams of marijuana and two felony charges against a 21-year-old man.

Jose Juan Mendoza, 21, of 131 Red Ranch Lane, Newton Grove, was charged with possession with intent to sell/distribute marijuana; maintaining a vehicle for a the storage and sell of a controlled substance; and possession of drug paraphernalia, a misdemeanor.

According to reports, Mendoza was pulled over near Grimes Road in Newton Grove for a traffic infraction. A subsequent search of his vehicle turned up 454 grams of marijuana and miscellaneous drug paraphernalia.

Mendoza was immediately taken into custody and his car was towed from the scene.

At the Sampson County Detention Center, Mendoza was placed under a $25,000 secured bond and given a trial date of Jan. 22.

Stolen Gun Found During Traffic Stop Outside School

<http://www.wtsbradio.com/pages/localnews.html>

Undercover Johnston County deputies arrested a Wilson's Mills resident in the parking lot at Smithfield Selma High School following a traffic stop on Thursday. Two officers were on patrol near the school around noon when a speeding car passed the deputies. They caught up with the vehicle as it was turning into the school parking lot. The driver refused to allow his car to be searched, but after a Selma Police K-9 alerted on the vehicle, officers reportedly found a stolen .45 caliber handgun that was fully loaded, inside. Tomas Granados, 24, was charged with possession of a gun on educational property, possession of a stolen handgun, and carrying a concealed weapon. Officers also impounded his vehicle. Officials said Grandados was in no way connected with the high school. He was booked into the Johnston County Jail in lieu of a $40,000 secured bond.

MS-13 gang trial opens in Charlotte

<http://www.wncn.com/video/featured-videos/Security-tight-for-MS-13-trial-today-81218252.html>

CHARLOTTE, N.C. -- Prosecutors laid out their case against six reputed members of the notorious MS-13 street gang in opening statements Tuesday. The six were part of a massive federal roundup of suspected gang members in the Charlotte area in June 2008.

On trial are Carlos Roberto Figueroa-Pineda, Elvin Pastor Fernandez-Gradis, Johnny Elias Gonzalez, Julio Cesar Rosales Lopez, Santos Anibal Caballero Fernandez, and Juan Gilberto Villalobos. They are charged with conspiring to distribute cocaine, assault and murder.

MS-13 originated in the poverty-riddled slums of El Salvador before spreading first to Los Angeles and then across the United States.

The gang was so powerful that investigators say a gang leader, Manuel De Jesus Ayala, ordered murders in Charlotte from his jail cell in El Salvador.

City trash truck driver charged in death

<http://www.charlotteobserver.com/topstories/story/1085060.html>

A temporary employee driving a city trash truck has been charged with misdemeanor death by vehicle after his truck flipped and killed a motorist in west Charlotte.

Police say Malaki Ysrayl, 43, was driving a Freightliner yard waste truck Friday afternoon on Billy Graham Parkway when he tried to turn right onto West Boulevard.

Investigators say he was going at least 31 miles per hour when he started the turn. The truck overturned and landed on Robert Stark's Toyota Highlander, in the left-turn lane on West Boulevard.

Stark, a 70-year-old from West End, N.C., was declared dead at the scene. Two relatives in the SUV, 69-year-old Francis Stark and his son Erik Stark, sustained minor injuries. Florence Dubois, 35, was trapped for over an hour in the Highlander's wreckage. She is in fair condition at Carolinas Medical Center.

Dubois and Erik Stark were returning to New York after Thanksgiving and the family was on their way to drop them off at the airport.

"They were about three minutes away," said Karl Stark, Robert Stark's other son.

Ysrayl, of Concord, had been driving trucks for Charlotte for a month and was hired as a temp from Metro Staffing. A city spokesman said he was licensed to drive the truck and had no other wrecks before Friday. Ysrayl was being held late Monday in jail under $4,000 bond.

ROLESVILLE -- A 20-year-old man died early Tuesday when his car veered out of control and crashed into a fence and a pine tree off N.C. 96 near Rolesville, authorities reported.

The victim, Jesus Tolentino Antonio, of 115 Redford Drive in Rolesville, was pronounced dead at the scene, said Dave Major, a N.C. State Highway Patrol spokesman.

Speed was a factor in the single-vehicle accident, investigating state troopers reported. It was estimated that Antonio was traveling approximately 30 mile an hour over the speed limit.

The wreck occurred just before 1 a.m. Antonio was the only occupant of a 2002 Volkswagen heading north on N.C. 96, about six miles southeast of Rolesville, the patrol said.

Baby sitter accused of showing porn to 8-year-old boy and then raping him

<http://www.gastongazette.com/news/allegedly-41065-rocha-boy.html>

A woman allegedly showed an 8-year-old boy pornographic movies while baby-sitting him and then forced him to have sex with her, according to arrest warrants.

Pilar Rocha, 21, allegedly watched multiple movies with the boy. When he went into the bathroom, she allegedly followed him and then they engaged in intercourse, according to a warrant affidavit signed by Gastonia Police Officer E.S. Wiggins.

The incident allegedly took place between Nov. 1, 2007, and Dec. 31, 2007, at the boy's Gastonia home, according to the arrest warrant. Rocha was 19 and the boy was 8 at the time.

Gastonia Police, with help from the U.S. Marshals Service, found the woman in the Miami-Dade County area and took her into custody Nov. 20. A warrant for her arrest in Gaston County had been taken out March 4, 2009, and authorities brought her back here Tuesday.

Rocha faces charges of first-degree rape of a child and disseminating obscene material to a minor less than 13.

Alcohol, other charges filed in fatal wreck

<http://mtairynews.com/bookmark/4986384>

A Dobson man has been accused of an alcohol violation stemming from a fatal car accident last spring which claimed the life of an Ararat teen, according to the N.C. Department of Crime Control and Public Safety.

Filberto Hernandez, 21, was charged this week with aiding and abetting underage possession of alcohol in connection with the April 18 wreck in which Michael Kessey Dehart was killed. The violation was filed by Special Agent Stacy Cox of the state Alcohol Law Enforcement (ALE) Division, an agency of the Department of Crime Control and Public Safety.

The driver of the compact car involved, Joshua Hembree, of 2637 Ararat Road, Ararat, who was 18 when the wreck occurred in southern Surry County, had been charged in early November with involuntary manslaughter and felony death by vehicle.

Hembree, who was seriously injured in the single-vehicle crash, additionally was charged with driving while impaired by the N.C. Highway Patrol.

Also, Luke Van Horn, 19, of Dobson, was charged on Nov. 25 with two counts of aiding and abetting underage possession of alcohol.

The offenses against the three individuals were filed after an extensive investigation into the death of Dehart, a passenger in the car allegedly driven by Hembree. The ALE, Surry County District Attorney's Office and Highway Patrol conducted the investigation.

Illegals giving rise to fake IDs

<http://www.gastongazette.com/news/fake-41164-ids-aren.html>

Forest City, police said two Hispanic men offered $400 each to a local DMV license examiner to get N.C. driver's licenses while a third tried to use the identity of someone else to obtain one for him. They, too, were believed to be in the country illegally.

DMV inspectors arrested Mario Ziranda, 35, and Elvis Sanchez, 28, at their residence at 272 Roberson Lane, Forest City. They face charges of common law forgery, manufacturing North Carolina driver's licenses, felony trafficking of identification documents, possession and delivery of cocaine and misuse of vital records.

Sampson County, DMV inspectors arrested Luis Omar Rivera, 31, and his brother, Jose Wilfredo Rivera, 27, at 2976 Five Bridge Road and Olegario Cegovia Gomez, 36, at 323 Peter Byrd Road. The arrests resulted from a four-month undercover investigation of a document lab that included three undercover purchases of counterfeit resident alien cards and Social Security cards.

Among the items seized from the two locations were Social Security cards, birth certificates, car titles, photographs, a Polaroid camera, heat seals, computer scanner, Texas birth certificates, a typewriter and $1,165 in cash.

Gastonia, two men and a woman tried to bribe a Gaston County driver license examiner with $300 to get a driver's license.

DMV inspectors arrested Claudia Morales Rodriguez, 29, and Alfredo Lopez Hernandez, 29, both of Gastonia, and Juan Alberto Goddy Vasquez, 37, of Kings Mountain on charges of attempting to bribe a state driver license examiner to obtain a driver's license.

Charlotte, DMV inspectors arrested a man and charged him with two felony counts of trafficking in stolen identification cards, one felony count of selling a fraudulent N.C. driver's license, three misdemeanor counts of manufacturing fraudulent government identification cards and one misdemeanor count of manufacturing a fraudulent North Carolina driver license.

Jose Jeremias Marquez, 36, was held by immigration following his arrest.

Orange County Sheriff's Office IDs nightclub shooting victim

<http://blogs.newsobserver.com/orangechat/orange-county-sheriffs-office-ids-nightclub-shooting-victim>

The Orange County Sheriff's Office has identified the victim in a fatal New Year's Day shooting at the Platinum Royale strip club north of Hillsborough.

Samuel Saavedra, 19, died during a robbery in which unknown gunmen entered the club, robbing and shooting at patrons and staff.

“I don’t think they were there looking for one particular person,” said sheriff’s investigator Chris Upchurch. “This was just a random robbery.” Upchurch declined to identify two other victims, one man and one woman. Each survived bullet wounds. “They don’t want their names released,” Upchurch said. “These folks are scared.” Upchurch said Saavedra had been living in Carrboro but was originally from Mexico, and his body was transported there for burial. The sheriff’s department initially had a difficulty matching up Saavedra’s identification, and he may have been an illegal immigrant, Upchurch said. Club owner Victor Olatoye does not plan to reopen the club, Upchurch said.

Home Invasion Suspect Sought

<http://www.wtsbradio.com/pages/localnews.html>

The search continues for a Smithfield man considered armed and dangerous following a home invasion and robbery Sunday morning at a home on Cleveland Road near Smithfield. Two men armed with guns burst into the residence of a Hispanic family, bound the victims, and placed them in a closet. The suspects then took a large amount of money and the victim's vehicle before fleeing. Jesus Angel Valdez Mendez, 22, of Clayton was arrested Monday morning. The search continues for a second man, Jorge Estrada Nolasco, a 38 year-old Hispanic male whose last known address was on Bridge Street in Smithfield. Once located, Nolasco will be charged with robbery, burglary and kidnapping. Mendez, the first suspect, remains in the Johnston County Jail under a $1 million bond. Johnston County Sheriff's detectives have not said if the robbery was a random incident but said the suspects waited for the family to return home from work. The victims operated businesses at flea markets in Wilson and Smithfield.

Gregorio Perez Aburto, 25, of Westbrook Lane, was charged Thursday with trafficking and delivery of cocaine. Bail was set at $100,000.

Emilio Romero Hernandez, 24, of the 400 block of North Dunn Street, was charged Thursday with trafficking and delivering cocaine. Bail was set $100,000.

Franklin teen held in attack

http://www.newsobserver.com/news/local_state/story/293388.html

A Franklin County high school student went into a rage early Tuesday morning, stabbing and killing his younger sister and leaving his mother critically injured, investigators say.

Sheriff Pat Green said Joseph Bravio Mendez, 18, was talking on the phone with a former girlfriend about 1:50 a.m. when he allegedly became angry, hung up the phone, grabbed a kitchen knife and attacked his sister as she slept on the couch.

When the sister, Jullanna Matthews, 14, screamed for help, Green said, her mother, Lydia Etanisiao, ran in from her bedroom, and Mendez turned and attacked her with the same knife, stabbing her numerous times. Green said Mendez dropped the knife, ran out of the house and went to a neighbor's house. He banged on the door to wake them and told them he had done something "very bad." He asked that they call 911.

Deputies arrested Mendez at the neighbor's house.

Jullanna and her mother were taken to UNC Hospitals, where Jullanna was pronounced dead. Etanisiao underwent surgery Tuesday morning and was in critical condition in the afternoon, Green said.

The sheriff said Mendez is in the Franklin County jail under suicide watch. Green said he was not aware of any history of problems involving Mendez, who is a student at Louisburg High School.

Kinston police arrest two men with drugs and guns

<http://www.kinston.com/news/possession-61464-public-kinston.html>

Two Kinston men were arrested over the weekend and charged with three felonies each after numerous tips from the public helped authorities discover the men were in possession of crack cocaine and possibly selling the schedule II drug.

On Jan. 17, the Kinston Department of Public Safety charged Milagro Lela Soloman, 31, of 311 N. Adkin St. and Cornel Breon Riley Harper, 33, of 1109 King St. with felony possession with intent to manufacture/sell/distribute a schedule II drug, felony possession of a firearm by a felon, and felony maintaining a dwelling.

"The suspects were arrested without incident at a residence on 905 Macon St., Kinston," Greg Thompson of the KDPS said. "A .38 caliber handgun, $667 cash and 9 grams of crack cocaine were seized during the arrest."

Smithfield Man Added To Most Wanted List

<http://www.wtsbradio.com/pages/localnews.html>

A Smithfield man has been added to Johnston County's Most Wanted List. Jorge Estrada Nolasco is wanted in connection with a violent home invasion January 17 at a home on Cleveland Road near Smithfield. Nolasco and a second man, Jesus Angel Valdez Mendez, 22, of Clayton allegedly waiting for a family to return home from work at a local flea market, and at gunpoint tied up the victims inside their residence, then took an undisclosed amount of money. Mendez was arrested the following day. Nolasco whose last known address was on Bridge Street in Smithfield is believed to have fled from the area. Once located he will be charged with robbery, burglary and kidnapping. Nolasco is described as a 37 year-old Hispanic male, 5 foot 10, 170 pounds, with black hair and brown eyes. He is considered to be armed and dangerous and should not be approached. Anyone with information on the suspects whereabouts is asked to contact the Johnston County Sheriff's Office at 919-989-5000.

Undercover buy leads to arrest on drug trafficking charges

<http://www.the-dispatch.com/article/20100129/ARTICLES/100129881/1006/NEWS?Title=Undercover-buy-leads-to-arrest-on-drug-trafficking-charges>

Two men face drug trafficking charges after the Thomasville Police Department Narcotics and Selective Enforcement Unit with assistance from the Randleman Police Department seized 10 pounds of marijuana.

Roberto Villa, 30, of 910A Culbreth Ave. in Thomasville, and Eric Moreno Cervantes, 34, of 2408A Clifton St. in High Point, were arrested Wednesday after detectives said they made a controlled undercover buy from the suspects.

Cervantes and Villa were charged with four counts of felony trafficking marijuana, felony selling marijuana, felony possession of marijuana and felony maintaining a vehicle/dwelling/place for a controlled substance. They were both placed in the Davidson County Detention Center under $100,000 secured bonds and are set to appear in Thomasville District Court on Feb. 26.

Three men arrested after woman was raped during motel attack

<http://www2.journalnow.com/content/2010/jan/30/fire-police-briefs/news-regional/>

Three men were arrested yesterday in connection with a reported rape at a hotel in northern Winston-Salem earlier this month.

Police said they arrested Omar Aliruz Castillo, 23, of 5404 Winona St.; Christian Morales Pasten, 28, of 2057 Bethabara Road, Apt. 17; and Cristhian Omar Diaz-Guillen, 23, of 2050 Craig St., Apt. 10.

Castillo and Diaz-Guillen were charged with first-degree rape and first-degree sex offense. Pasten was charged with first-degree rape and second-degree kidnapping.

The incident took place at the Sundance Plaza Hotel on University Parkway shortly after midnight on Jan. 17, authorities said. A woman told police that she was raped by three acquaintances in a room there. She was treated at Forsyth Medical Center, police said.

All three men were being held last night in the Forsyth County Jail. Bond for Castillo and Diaz-Guillen was set at $100,000 each. Pasten's bond was set at $150,000.
