<http://www.wtsbradio.com/pages/localnews.html>

On Friday, Clayton Police announced the arrests of three teens in connection with several vehicle break-ins that occurred in June. At least nine of the alleged incidents occurred on June 16 and June 17 in the Brigadoon Subdivision off Dairy Road. In all 9 cases, the vehicles had been left unlocked. In most cases, only small personal items were stolen such as change, sunglasses, GPS units, digital cameras, and cellphones. In one case a residential garage was broken into and small items were taken.

Police Captain Jon Gerrell said Roberto Carlos Alejo, 17 of Sunset Drive, Clayton, Francisco Aguilar Barajas, 18 of Alta MHP, Clayton, and Jesus Martinez, 17 of Waber Court, Smithfield, were arrested on 9 counts each of felony breaking into a motor vehicle, 5 felony counts of larceny, 1 felony count of breaking and entering, and one misdemeanor count of damage to property. All three teens were placed in the Johnston County Jail under a $251,000 bond each.

Captain Gerrell said, this is another series of vehicle break-ins this year where the suspects entered and stole items from unlocked cars parked upon streets and driveways. Gerrell said the Clayton Police Department has posted previous advisories about thefts from unlocked cars, and continues to urge everyone to lock your vehicle doors and remove all valuable items to avert theft.

Drunk Illegal Alien Kills 17 yr old Girl and Self in Wreck

<http://www.wral.com/news/local/story/9822996/>

SPRING HOPE, N.C. — The North Carolina State Highway Patrol released more details Wednesday in the fatal Nash County crash that killed two people and injured two others early Tuesday.

Troopers released the name of the 34-year-old man who died after apparently driving the wrong way on U.S. Highway 64 and crashing into a Chevrolet Cobalt carrying three teenage girls, killing one and injuring the other two.

Germain Alexander Granados Gomez, of Fairfax, Va., was driving a Honda Accord approximately 100 mph, according to troopers. He died at the scene near Frazier Road, about 4 miles southwest of Spring Hope. He was wearing his seat belt.

Authorities believe Gomez and the other driver, 17-year-old Paige Ashley Toelke of Nashville, had been drinking. Troopers said they found physical evidence in both cars that alcohol was a factor.

Toelke was driving about 70 mph at the time of the crash, troopers said. Her back-seat passenger, Brianna McLaughlin, 17, of Rocky Mount, was injured and later died. She was not wearing a seat belt, troopers said.

Toelke and her front-seat passenger, Leigh Bulluck, 17, of Rocky Mount, were taken to WakeMed with serious injuries. They were both wearing seat belts, troopers said.

Multiple motorists called 911 around 2 a.m. Tuesday reporting that Gomez's Honda was traveling in the wrong direction, including a woman who followed from the other side of the highway in the eastbound lane.

Troopers from Rocky Mount were dispatched to look for the wrong-way driver when the woman called 911 again, saying that, at one point, he appeared to be going at least 90-95 mph.

"I don't know how many accidents he's almost been in," she said. "I just want to make sure the cops understand how fast he's going, and we're already almost 12 miles down the road from when I first called them."

She was on the phone with 911 when the two cars collided.

Cock-fighting equipment seized in Willow Spring homicide

http://www.wral.com/news/news_briefs/story/9822631/

WILLOW SPRING, N.C. — Equipment used for cock-fighting and other items were seized from vehicles linked to two men found dead at a Willow Spring home on June 24, according to search warrants released Tuesday.

Roger Trujillo Perez, 30, of 2832 N.C. Highway 42, and another man, who hasn't yet been identified, were found shot to death inside Perez' home.

Investigators with the Wake County Sheriff's Office continue to follow leads in the case, and they said they believe the shootings weren't random acts of violence.

Property records list the homeowner as Judith Dickens, who has a Rockville, Md., address.

Another man who lived in the home, Miguel Vasquez, 63, has been charged with possession with intent to manufacture, sell or deliver marijuana, authorities said.

Vasquez told investigators he was at the home during the murder, according to search warrants. Vasquez said he fled in a Green Chevrolet and drove to a business off of Airpark Road. That vehicle was towed to the Wake County Public Safety Center and searched.

Investigators seized cock-fighting equipment, medicine bottles and needles from his vehicle.

Authorities also searched a Chevrolet Silverado truck, which was registered to Perez and found on a dirt portion of John Adams Road about two miles from the home.

Gloves and DNA swabs were taken from the truck, according to the search warrant.

Worker killed during a robbery attempt

<http://www.charlotteobserver.com/2011/07/07/2434487/worker-killed-during-a-robbery.html>

Wuilson Helvan Reyes Murilla, 42, was shot about 9 p.m. Tuesday at the La Acapulquena grocery store after police say he was involved in an altercation with two would-be robbers. Police said he died at the scene.

Sohka Srey, who works nearby, told the Observer she heard one gunshot followed by people screaming, then two to three more shots late Tuesday. She said the store had been robbed earlier this year.

Police said the store tends to have significant amounts of cash on hand, because some customers wire home money. Signs in the store's front windows advertise international money transfers.

Another witness told the Observer Wednesday she saw two men struggling on the sidewalk outside the grocery store Tuesday night. One man pulled a gun from behind his back and shot Murilla, she said.

Police asked the public's help to identify two suspects, both Hispanic males, captured in surveillance footage. One was seen wearing a ski mask and a blue plaid shirt. The other wore a Cincinnati Reds baseball cap, police said.

The shooter was Hispanic, medium-build and wearing a peach-colored, checkered shirt with a collar.

Double shooting shocks Charlotte mobile home park

http://charlotte.news14.com/content/top_stories/643268/double-shooting-shocks-charlotte-mobile-home-park

CHARLOTTE—Police are investigating two shootings that happened early Sunday morning at a mobile home park.

According to police there the incidents occurred at a mobile home park on Orr Road. The first incident was around 3:30 a.m. when two Hispanic men tried to rob a woman driving a mini van.

The woman managed to drive away but the men shot at one of the van windows. The shattered glass injured a 3-year-old in the van but the injuries are not considered to be life threatening.

Another incident around the same time occurred when a 17-year-old girl appeared on the scene with a gunshot wound to the leg. She told police she had been at a party at the same mobile home park when someone started shooting.

It is unclear whether these two incidents are related but they are both still under investigation.

Mooresville police make million-dollar marijuana bust

<http://www2.mooresvilletribune.com/news/2011/jun/29/7/mpd-largest-marijuana-drug-bust-ar-1164977/>

MOORESVILLE -- The Mooresville Police Department made its largest-ever marijuana bust early Wednesday, seizing a garage full of marijuana plants and arresting four men.

Narcotics Division officers, along with several other law enforcement agencies, raided a home on Comata Road in the Winslow Bay subdivision, on Mooresville’s west side, about 2 a.m.

They found approximately 700 marijuana plants, with a street value of more than $1 million, growing in pots in the garage. MPD Capt. Thomas Thompson said his department had been tipped off by the Huntersville Police Department, which had been investigating another marijuana growing operation in that city.

“Our narcotics team went to the residence, secured it, and obtained a warrant,” said Thompson. “This was a very elaborate grow operation.”

Thompson said the house was rented specifically for the growing operation and had very sophisticated lighting, venting and watering systems in the garage.

Arrested and charged with offenses relating to the manufacturing and trafficking of marijuana were Ving Quang Vo, Tomson Truong, Thien Lam and Don Vo. All are being held at the Iredell County Jail under $250,000 secured bonds.

Two Arrested During Major Smithfield Drug Bust

<http://www.wtsbradio.com/pages/localnews.html>

A major drug bust took place Monday afternoon in West Smithfield. Following an undercover operation, narcotics agents with the Johnston County Sheriff's Office arrested two people and seized four ounces of suspected cocaine during a "buy-bust" operation in the parking lot of K-Mart on Market Street.

Pedro Javier Rameriz, 29, of South Brightleaf Boulevard, Smithfield and Jose Guillermo Parada Barajas, 33, of Live Oak Church Road, Selma were arrested at the scene on drug trafficking charges.

Narcotics Captain A.C. Fish described Rameriz as a drug broker and Barajas as a mid-level cocaine dealer in the Johnston County area. Captain Fish said the drugs had a street value of at least $4,000.

Agents said the investigation was still ongoing and additional arrests have not been ruled out.

Pregnant Illegal Woman Loses Baby In Wreck Caused by Running Stop Sign

<http://www.wtsbradio.com/pages/localnews.html>

A Smithfield woman lost her baby in an accident in Dunn. Her car reportedly failed to stop at a stop sign and was hit by a car driven by a second motorist, causing it to roll several times.

Tayde Aguilera Espinal, 27, remains in critical condition at UNC Hospitals in Chapel Hill. She and her son Angel Lopez Aguilera, 6, were ejected from the vehicle after a wreck at the intersection Old Fairground and Tilghman Roads.

Ms. Espinal, who was pregnant, lost her baby as a result of the accident.

José Lopez Aguilera, who was driving the car. He did not suffer serious injuries

State Trooper J.B. Harvey investigated the accident for the North Carolina Highway Patrol.

Man wanted on murder charges found in Sampson

<http://clintonnc.com/bookmark/14675273>

A man wanted for a 2009 murder in Tennessee was picked up in Sampson County Saturday afternoon on two outstanding failure to appear warrants.

Joselito Garay, 29, of 4329 Spring Branch Road, was arrested and taken to the Sampson County Detention Center and processed. But, the biggest surprise came two days later, when, on Monday, Garay's fingerprints came back from N.C. Aware as a match to Jose Morano, a wanted fugitive from Tennessee.

According to reports, Morano was involved in the abduction and murder of Sara Martinez, a 20-year-old Nashville woman reportedly last seen with Morano on March 9, 2009 at Club Guadalajara in south Nashville.

She was reported missing on March 15, 2009 and her abandoned car was discovered days later. Morano left his Nashville complex and never returned to get his personal items.

Although Tennessee investigators had initially believed he fled to his native Honduras, Morano had been working as a Sampson County laborer polishing stone.

Local investigators said once the prints came back confirming the suspect was wanted for murder, they immediately filed a North Carolina fugitive warrant so they could detain him at the Detention Center.

"It just goes to show you that our law enforcement officers have no idea who they will be taking into custody," said Sampson County Sheriff Jimmy Thornton. "Fortunately, they were able to apprehend this wanted fugitive before he committed anymore crimes."

Ex-UNCC employee accused of helping foreign students stay in U.S. illegally

<http://www.charlotteobserver.com/2011/07/14/2453668/unc-employee-accused-of-helping.html>

Federal prosecutors today accused a former UNC-Charlotte employee of falsifying student visa information to help about 66 foreign nationals stay in the United States illegally.

Prosecutors say Thomas C. Briggs, who was an administrative support specialist in the school's Office of International Programs, entered false information in a database federal homeland security officials use to keep track of foreign students. They say he did so to harbor and conceal students who were staying in the U.S. illegally.

Students in the country under student visas are required to be full-time students at a college or university. Prosecutors say Briggs, who served as an immigration resource for foreign students at UNC-Charlotte, entered information in the database falsely stating that about 66 students were properly enrolled and maintaining a full course of study.

"Defendant Briggs then knew this information to be false," U.S. Attorney Anne Tompkins and Assistant U.S. Attorney Craig Randall said in the charge filed today.

UNC-Charlotte spokesman John Bland said Briggs is no longer employed by the school.

Illegal Alien sought in 2009 fatal shooting of soldier

<http://www.fayobserver.com/articles/2011/07/14/1108457?sac=Home>

Cumberland County homicide detectives are trying to find a man, believed to be in New York City, who is accused of aiding another man in a 2009 fatal shooting at a bar in Spring Lake.

Warrants are on file charging Tobijah Nelson, 28, with being an accessory after the fact to the murder of a Fort Hood soldier who was attending a birthday party for a friend, said Debbie Tanna, spokeswoman for the Cumberland County Sheriff's Office.

In recent months, detectives have appeared on several TV network shows in an effort to find Nelson, Tanna said.

That led to a tip that Nelson, a Jamaican national who is in the country illegally, had been seen recently in New York City, Tanna said.

The shooting happened March 29, 2009, at the Ikola Jamaican Lounge, Tanna said.

Nelson and 24-year-old Demar Bryan, described as club regulars, began arguing outside the club with a woman, Tanna said.

The soldier, Charles Clemens, 24, came to the woman's aid, Tanna said, and was drawn into the argument.

Clemens was in the club, on the dance floor, when Bryan opened fire, hitting the soldier and his friend, Arthur Mwebe, Tanna said.

Bryan and Nelson left the club, she said.

Several months later, Bryan was arrested in Sebring, Fla. He was carrying false identification and told investigators he was moving to Miami.

He was returned to Cumberland County and is in jail awaiting trial, Tanna said.

Man on sheriff's Most Wanted caught

SALISBURY — The Rowan County Sheriff's Office has arrested one of the men on its 15 Most Wanted List.

Manuel Delgado Pineda has been listed on the sheriff's 15 Most Wanted since its creation in December 2010. Pineda's arrest was the result of tips received through Crime Stoppers from a person who saw the sheriff's most wanted list on the Salisbury Post's website.

Deputy McHone arrested Pineda Thursday at a residence at 103 Town Court, Salisbury.

Pineda was arrested after an 11-year search and was placed in jail under a $25,000 secured bond on charges of three counts of trafficking in cocaine and conspiracy to traffic in cocaine. Pineda had returned to Rowan County and has been living under the name Javier Guitierrez.

On Sept. 19, 2000, the Rowan County Sheriff's Office Special Investigations Unit conducted a joint investigation with the Federal Bureau of Investigation concerning a group of cocaine traffickers in Rowan and Cabarrus counties.

This group included Enrique Pineda, Manuel Pineda and Zayur Pineda. This investigation was lead by then-detective Sgt. Kevin Auten and came to a conclusion when investigators arranged for these three suspects to deliver a large quantity of cocaine to an undercover FBI agent in a parking lot at Bostian Cross Roads at Highway 152 and Old Concord Road.

Rowan County Sheriff's Office detectives and FBI agents planned to arrest the suspect once the undercover agent became aware that the cocaine was present. At about 9 p.m., the suspects arrived and as the undercover agent confirmed the presence of the cocaine, investigators approached the parking lot and all three suspects fled on foot into the surrounding neighborhood.

During the chase detective Moose and Auten captured Enrique Pineda after a brief struggle in the woods behind Bostian Heights Store. Manuel and Zayur Pineda were not captured.

Detectives seized more than 16 ounces of cocaine and a .38 caliber handgun and began a search for the missing suspects.

Enrique Pineda was placed in jail under a $250,000 secured bond on three counts of trafficking in cocaine and conspiracy to traffic in cocaine and was found guilty and served an eight-year prison sentence and was deported back to Mexico.

The Sheriff's Office still holds warrants on Zayur Pineda and he remains listed on the Sheriff's 15 Most Wanted list.

SALISBURY—The man charged in the death of Guillermo Montes-Gonzalez on June 9 arrived back in Salisbury Sunday.

Jose Daniel-Torres Castro was arrested in Kerens, Texas — about 70 miles southeast of Dallas — in mid-June at a traffic stop less than a week after the Rowan County Sheriff's Office filed a warrant charging him with the murder.

Deputies from the Sheriff's Office found Montes-Gonzalez lying a cul-de-sac with multiple gunshot wounds at about 1 a.m. on June 9 after responding to a shooting call on Barley Run in western Rowan County.

Montes-Gonzalez, 29, was a cook at DJ's Restaurant on West Innes Street. He had a wife, Magali Solano Garcia, and three children ages 3, 5 and 11.

Authorities also arrested and charged Castro's mother, 38-year-old Maria Castro, with accessory to first-degree murder after the fact.

According to investigators, Maria Castro helped her son hide a blue van that belonged to Montes-Gonzalez and gave investigators false information. The van was found by investigators in the Castros' driveway at 2110 Harrison Road.

Jose Castro is being held without bond.

Sheriff's dog died after finding 1 kilo of cocaine, two men arrested

<http://yellowtape.blogs.starnewsonline.com/15994/sheriffs-dog-died-after-finding-1-kilo-of-cocaine-two-men-arrested/>

Authorities today released the names of two men arrested in a drug investigation over the weekend during which a sheriff's dog who found the cocaine died from a severe reaction.

Braulio Yanez Marin, 28, and Jamie Lopez Gonzalez, 32, were arrested and both face cocaine trafficking and conspiracy to traffic cocaine charges, according to the Brunswick County Sheriff's Office.

The men, who are both from Ash, remain in the Brunswick County jail, each under $1 million secured bonds.

Agents were led to a cornfield off Diamond Loop Way in Ash on Saturday evening where a sheriff's K-9 named Viper and his handler, Dept. Jared Zeller, found a package containing a kilo of cocaine, according to a release from the sheriff's office.

The cocaine had a street value of more than $100,000, the release stated.

Viper was exposed to dangerous chemicals that led to a severe reaction, authorities said. He was taken to an emergency vet hospital in Southport where he was pronounced dead.

A memorial service for Viper is planned for 11 a.m. Tuesday in front of the Brunswick County Sheriff's Office.

North Carolina man charged after woman's body found in trunk

<http://www.fayobserver.com/articles/2011/07/18/1109274?sac=Crime>

CLIFTON FORGE, Va. - A North Carolina man faces homicide and fugitive from justice charges after police in western Virginia discovered a woman's body in his car's trunk.

Clifton Forge, Va., police arrested 19-year-old Enrico Luciano Mascaro, of Nags Head, on Friday after he returned to his parked 1996 Mustang. Chief Barry Balsler said police found the body when they searched the trunk. The victim's name hasn't been released.

A Monday arraignment on the fugitive charge was postponed until Tuesday afternoon in Alleghany County General District Court. Mascaro was expected to be extradited to Kitty Hawk, N.C.

Kitty Hawk police had issued a nationwide alert for Mascaro and 18-year-old Danielle Dennis-Towne of Steger, Ill., after finding a crime scene. Police used cell phone towers to track the Mustang to Clifton Forge. Mascaro has been charged with homicide in Kitty Hawk, according to David R. Ward, chief of police in that town.

Dennis-Towne had been staying with Mascaro and his family in nearby Nags Head, a popular vacation spot about 10 miles south of Kitty Hawk in North Carolina's Outer Banks, according to Nags Head Police Chief Kevin Brinkley.

The two met when Mascaro lived in Illinois, Brinkley said. Mascaro's parents, who are cooperating with investigators, first reported the two missing on Friday, having last seen them the night before. Dennis-Towne had been staying in the coastal town for a few weeks before she and Mascaro were reported missing, Brinkley said.

The crime scene that prompted police to issue the nationwide alert included several items found in some Kitty Hawk woods that were traced to the pair, Brinkley said, but he declined to specify what the items were.

Hispanic Community, CMPD Work To Solve Murders

<http://www.foxcharlotte.com/news/top-stories/Hispanic-Community-CMPD-Work-To-Solve-Murders-125789238.html>

CHARLOTTE, N.C. - With a weekend double murder that happened at a parking lot of the Four Seasons Apartments in East Charlotte, several apartment residents expressed worries because the victims were Hispanics. They hope Charlotte-Mecklenburg Police catch the suspects responsible for killing Jorge Luis Morales and Olivia Raquel Martinez-Mercado. Based on initial witness statements, police are looking for a black SUV heading towards Albermarle Road.

Hispanic residents, who make up the majority of those living at Four Seasons, say even before this incident happened, they've seen CMPD officers frequently patrol the area.

Patricia Ortiz, a reporter covering crime, politics and immigration for the Spanish weekly newspaper, Que Pasa Mi Gente, says relationships between Charlotte's Hispanic community and police has improved dramatically. "If CMPD reaches out and is seen as being concerned about what's happening in the Hispanic neighborhoods, residents will trust them and offer help."

This year, eight murder investigations have involved Hispanic victims, including a guard at a Latino convenience store in West Charlotte almost two weeks ago. Investigators say two Hispanic men tried to rob the store located on Tuckaseegee Road, when a fight broke out between the suspects and the murder victim, Wuilson Helvan Reyes Murilla Ortiz.

In four murder cases that happened earlier this year, police caught the suspects with help from Hispanic witnesses. "It's these CMPD officers who are constantly going out to meet with Hispanic residents, even on their own time, who people are turning to when crimes happen," said Ortiz.

There are approximately 111,000 Hispanic residents in the Charlotte area. It's not known how many are bilingual or how many speak only Spanish. But when crimes happen in those neighborhoods, there are 62 CMPD officers who speak Spanish, half of those are Hispanic.

"I think the process has been getting better everyday," said CMPD officer Danny Hernandez. "It's been a lack of misunderstanding on both sides, not just the Hispanic community, but also the police department." Officer Hernandez says both sides understand getting the bad guys is priority, and targeted outreach has been successful. One trend seen increasing lately in the area, Hispanic on Hispanic crime. That was the case at the Latino convenience store murder investigation.

"We're getting some individuals, they've come in from other areas that have been doing that in other areas and we're realizing it's a new thing here," said Hernandez. CMPD is quickly cracking down on that type of crime.
