<http://www.wtsbradio.com/pages/localnews.html>

A Four Oaks man is in custody after authorities said he went on a shooting spree at his father's home Sunday night shooting two of his brothers. The incident happened around 10:30pm at 9779 Highway 210. Sheriff's Detective M.J. Carson said Anthony Sosa, 21, got into a dispute with his father when his dad asked for help in cleaning up the house.

Sosa allegedly attacked his father, and his two brothers, Daniel Sosa, 22, and Joe Sosa, 19, allegedly prevented Anthony Sosa from continuing to assault their father. Detective Carson said Anthony Sosa left the residence and went to a barn next door where he was living with his wife and two children.

He returned to the house with a shotgun and fired at least 20 rounds, according to Detective Lt. J.R. Gerrell, including shooting the inside and outside the home and two vehicles in the driveway. Sosa's two brothers were struck by the gunfire, but were not seriously wounded.

Anthony Sosa was charged with two counts of assault with a deadly weapon and discharging a weapon into occupied property. Lt. Gerrell said additional charges are pending. Sosa is currently in the Johnston County Jail under a $120,000 bond.

After obtaining permission to search the vehicle, the officer said he found a Motrin IB bottle containing marijuana. More marijuana and other drug paraphernalia were also found in the car, police said.

Garcia was arrested and charged with drug possession and possession of drug paraphernalia.

His bail at the Wilkes County Jail was set at $1,500.

MOORESVILLE — Undercover Rowan County deputies capped a weeklong investigation on Tuesday when officers said they caught two men exchanging a kilo of cocaine on N.C. 152.

According to a Sheriff's Office report, Nicholas Lopez-Ayon of Salisbury met with Juan Carlos Resillos of Kannapolis and were both driving to a location to make the sale.

Deputies said the price of the seized cocaine, as a whole, was about $30,000. Sold in separate amounts, the drugs are worth about $80 a gram, or $80,000 total. A kilo is 35.27 ounces.

The men, who were driving separate vehicles, were stopped near the intersection of Corriher Grange Road and N.C. 152 near Atwell.

The cocaine was found in a Koolaid box in the back seat, the report said.

Both men were charged with two counts of felony trafficking cocaine and felony conspiring to traffick cocaine. They were each given $500,000 bonds and were in jail on Wednesday.

According to the Sheriff's Office, Lopez-Ayon was also wanted on drug charges out of South Carolina. Deputies believe the man skipped town after paying a $150,000 bond in 2006 when authorities found him with cocaine and marijuana.

3 charged in attempted robbery of Kangaroo store; may be suspects in Thursday hold up

<http://www.fayobserver.com/articles/2011/10/31/1133882?sac=Home>

HOPE MILLS - Three men were arrested during an armed robbery attempt at a Kangaroo convenience store on South Main Street early Sunday morning, said Hope Mills Police.

The department's Sgt. S.B. Merriman said the holdup is connected to a Thursday night robbery at a Kangaroo at the corner of Cumberland and Hope Mills roads.

"The parties involved were tied into the robbery Thursday night," she said.

Jesus Jessie Gomez, 25, and Xavier Deshawn Lymas, 23, both of the 5200 block of Jason Keith Court, Fayetteville, and Jose Morales, 23, of the 2600 block of Dumfries Drive, Fayetteville, have been charged in Sunday's attempted robbery.

Gomez and Lymas have both been charged with attempted robbery with a deadly weapon, conspiracy to commit robbery with a deadly weapon and possession of a firearm by a felon. Morales is charged with attempted robbery with a deadly weapon and conspiracy to commit robbery with a deadly weapon.

Bail of $500,000 apiece have been set for Gomez and Lymas, and bail of $350,000 has been set for Morales.

As of 8 p.m. Sunday, the three suspects had not been charged in the Thursday robbery, Merriman said. "We have some in custody," she said, "and we are following up on leads hoping to do charges later."

Police are still investigating other robberies that may have been involved these suspects. Merriman also anticipates other arrests in the case.

Sunday at about 1:27 a.m., Hope Mills Police officers spotted a suspicious vehicle traveling back and forth by the Kangaroo on South Main, according to a department news release. They then saw two suspects, dressed in black jackets with hoods wearing masks and carrying handguns, enter the business.

"The patrolman immediately entered the business and secured the two gunmen without any incident," the release said.

According to Hope Mills Police, Morales was driving the car, a Cadillac, and he dropped Gomez and Lymas off at the store.

Van rolls with seven inside

<http://www2.wataugademocrat.com/News/story/Van-rolls-with-seven-inside-id-006129>

Several men were injured when a passenger van rolled down a hill Thursday morning in Cove Creek. The accident happened at about 9:45 a.m. on Hubert Thomas Road, a gravel road off U.S. 321. A group of laborers returning from harvesting cabbage in a nearby field were riding in the 1989 Ford van when it slid off the road and rolled into a field below.

Jose Rodriguez, 29, of West Jefferson, was complaining of chest and stomach pain and was taken to Johnson City Medical Center via Wings Air Rescue, which airlifted him from a landing zone at the Watauga River bridge. He was listed in stable condition Thursday.

Four other West Jefferson residents were taken to Watauga Medical Center, according to Trooper Tim Hendrix of the N.C. Highway Patrol: Emanuel Santiago, 22; David Lopez, 26; Rafeal Flores Soto, 25; and Miguel Jimenez, 26. He said none of the injuries appeared to be life-threatening.

Two others refused transport, including Teodoro Mendez of Jefferson and another Jefferson resident whose name was not available, Hendrix said.

Santiago, the driver, told Hendrix through an interpreter that he had tried to avoid a squirrel in the road and got too close to the edge. He was cited for driving without a license and unsafe movement, Hendrix said.

Miami man sentenced to 45 years in prison for Sanford rape

<http://www.fayobserver.com/articles/2011/09/27/1125954?sac=Lee>

A Miami man convicted of raping and robbing a woman behind a Sanford gas station in 2009 has been sentenced to more than 45 years in prison, according to the Lee County Sheriff's Office.

Pedro Noveron, 29, pleaded guilty Sept. 12 to charges of first-degree rape, first-degree sexual offense, first-degree kidnapping, armed robbery, assault on a government official, resisting a public officer and trafficking in cocaine, officials said.

Noveron was accused of forcing a woman into her vehicle as she left a Kangaroo gas station at 2219 Jefferson Davis Highway in October 2009, deputies said.

He was arrested the same day after his vehicle was seen traveling on U.S. 1. Lawmen found a half-pound of cocaine in Noveron's vehicle, deputies said.

Witnesses and DNA evidence tied him to the rape and robbery, authorities said.

Alleged N.C. fake ID boss due in Va. court

http://www.news-record.com/content/2011/10/04/article/alleged_nc_fake_id_boss_due_in_va_court

RICHMOND, Va. (AP) — A North Carolina man described by prosecutors as the leader of a sophisticated, violent fake-identification ring is due in federal court in Virginia.

Israel Cruz Millan of Raleigh and four of his alleged associates are set for arraignment Tuesday on multiple counts, including racketeering and murder and kidnapping in aid of racketeering conspiracy.

The five men are among 27 people who were charged in November with participating in what prosecutors say was a fraudulent-document enterprise with roots in Mexico that operated in Virginia and 10 other states.

Prosecutors say the organization protected its lucrative turf through kidnappings, beatings and the slaying of a rival.

Most of the defendants have pleaded guilty.

Millan and the other four will be arraigned in Richmond on a fourth superseding indictment.

Suspect in Havelock shooting arrested in Charlotte

http://charlotte.news14.com/content/top_stories/647692/suspect-in-havelock-shooting-arrested-in-charlotte

A Havelock man is in custody after police say he shot his wife and then drove the wounded woman to Charlotte with their three children.

Ramiro Ochoa, Jr. was wanted for felony charges of assault with a deadly weapon inflicting serious injury and first degree kidnapping.

Police say the two got into a heated argument, and Yolanda Ochoa was shot in her lower extremities. They say the man is accused of then assaulting one of the three children and forcing them all into the woman's vehicle.

Police say the woman and her children were dropped off at a Charlotte hospital early Tuesday afternoon and the vehicle was found abandoned.

Havelock police say they found evidence at 324 Little John Lane of the shooting and recovered the suspected weapon.

Police Chief Wayne Cyrus says Ochoa is charged with assault with a deadly weapon inflicting serious injury, first degree kidnapping and possession of a firearm by a convicted felon. He says Ochoa is currently on active federal probation.

The man's wife was wounded in the upper right leg. The chief says at last check she was in stable condition at a Charlotte hospital. The woman was also physically assaulted in the attack. The three children are an infant boy, a 12 year old girl and a 13 year old girl. Those children are now with their aunt.

Cyrus says authorities are in the process of returning Ochoa to Craven County to face charges.

The husband was arrested in the Charlotte area Tuesday night, according to Havelock officials who released the information Wednesday morning. The Havelock Police Department is working with the Charlotte Police Department and the SBI. Havelock officials says the Charlotte/FBI Violent Crimes Task Force arrested Ochoa.

Charlotte prostitution ring was run by illegal immigrant

<http://www.wbtv.com/story/15663538/feds-illegal-immigrant-ran-southwest-charlotte-prostitution-ring>

CHARLOTTE, NC (WBTV) - Federal agents arrested an illegal immigrant believed to be operating a prostitution ring out of a Southwest Charlotte home, court records obtained by WBTV.com show.

According to the criminal complaint filed in federal court, Homeland Security Investigation Special Agent Nathan Peachy along with a team of investigators received information about possible suspects living in Charlotte as a result of an ongoing prostitution investigation in New York.

"Phone records showed one of the suspect cellular telephone numbers had been located in the vicinity of 5726 Southampton Rd.," Peachy wrote.

When Peachy and investigators went to the home, Filemon Guzman-Martinez met them at the door. Peachy said Guzman-Martinez let investigators into the home and gave them permission to search.

What agents found, the complaint alleges, was evidence of a prostitution ring. "There were numerous copies of a business card throughout the residence. This business card had pictures of Hispanic women posed and dressed in a sexually suggestive manner," the document read.

During their search, Peachy said more evidence was found in the room of a woman who was also inside the home. "Agents found a bulk package of condoms," as well as "two notebooks listing names and phone numbers."

Those numbers, Peachy wrote, had area codes assigned to locations in the Carolinas, Georgia and New York.

He said the woman whose room, where the items were said to be found, admitted to investigators that she had been arrested previously for prostitution in Illinois.

The home is on a relatively quiet street, neighbors said, only noticing foot and vehicle traffic pick up after sunset.

"It was a lot of women; at dusk you would see cars pull up and women going in with their bags and stuff," neighbor Ronald Caldwell told WBTV.com, "most of [the cars] would go down to the corner and wait and as one car would leave, another one would pull up."

During their search, Peachy said investigators discovered Guzman-Martinez is living in the country illegally. The Mexico native admitted that he kept prostitutes at the home, which he was renting, records show.

The owner of the home, located through a search of city records, could not be reached for comment. The owner faces no charges in connection to the bust.

Guzman-Martinez is scheduled to appear before a federal magistrate later this week.

Moore County restaurant owner accused of dealing meth in parking lot

<http://www.fayobserver.com/articles/2011/10/17/1130733?sac=Home>

CARTHAGE - A restaurant owner who authorities say is in the U.S. illegally is accused of dealing methamphetamine at his business near Pinebluff.

Alfredo Araujo Saavedra, 34, of the 200 block of Windy Hill Road in Aberdeen, was arrested Thursday at his restaurant, Taqueria El Toro, on U.S. 1, according to Detective Jerrell Seawell of the Moore County Sheriff's Office.

An investigation began in 2010 centered around the restaurant, Seawell said.

Saavedra would conduct drug transactions in the parking lot, Seawell said.

Officers purchased and seized about 119 grams of methamphetamine with an estimated street value of $14,280, Seawell said.

Investigators seized $1,471 at the time of Saavedra's arrest, Seawell said.

Saavedra is charged with six counts of trafficking in methamphetamine and three counts each of possessing methamphetamine with intent to sell or deliver, selling methamphetamine and delivering methamphetamine.

Bail was set at $500,000.

The U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement agency has placed a detainer against Saavedra, Seawell said, which means federal agents will seek custody of him to begin deportation proceedings.

Raeford police arrest two on drug, counterfeiting charges

<http://www.fayobserver.com/articles/2011/10/17/1130699?sac=Home>

RAEFORD - A tip that synthetic and real marijuana was being sold to minors at a Raeford tobacco store resulted in two arrests last week.

It happened Thursday at Fat Boyz Tobacco Shop at 317 Harris Ave., according to Maj. George Marr of the Raeford Police Department.

Investigators executed a search warrant and found a quantity of what they believe is Spice, the synthetic marijuana that was declared illegal in North Carolina earlier this year, Marr said.

Officers found counterfeit clothing, bootleg DVDs and CDs, drug paraphernalia and a mixture of narcotic painkillers, Marr said.

The clerk, Angel Aviles, 34, of the 300 block of Little Cohaire Lane in Roseboro, was charged with two counts each of trafficking in opium and maintaining a drug vehicle or dwelling and one count of criminal use of a counterfeit trademark, Marr said.

Officers discovered that Aviles, a convicted felon, had a handgun with him and charged him with being a felon in possession of a firearm and misdemeanor possession of drug paraphernalia, Marr said.

Aviles' bail was set at $151,000.

As officers were searching the business, owner Jose Manual Plata, 36, of the 7000 block of Kings Lynn Loop in Fayetteville, arrived and, after identifying himself, was charged with criminal use of a counterfeit trademark, Marr said.

Man charged after allegedly lying to officers

SALISBURY — A Salisbury man is in jail Monday under a $51,000 bond after authorities say he lied to officers about his name.

According to a Rowan County Sheriff's Office report, Bryan Salazar told officers that his name was Jose Luis after authorities were notified that Salazar and a female were trespassing at 225 Dulin Ave.

Deputies quickly pulled the man's photo up on his in-car computer which uses information from NCAWARE and the Department of Motor Vehicles to provide warrants and photos to officers in the field.

The 911 caller told authorities that the man accused of trespassing was Salazar and deputies determined the man's identity after matching his photo.

Salazar was charged with resisting, delaying and obstructing a public officer. He had Cabarrus County warrants for two counts of felony breaking and entering, two counts of felony larceny and misdemeanor injury to real property.

<http://www.wtsbradio.com/pages/localnews.html>

A routine traffic stop Saturday morning in Smithfield led to the arrest of a man reportedly wanted by federal immigration officials since 2008.

Police stopped a vehicle on South Third Street and determined the occupant, Ever Soloman Sanches Bonilla, 25, of West Noble Street, Selma had been wanted for the past three years by the US Immigration and Custom Enforcement (US ICE) agency for a deportation detainer, according to arrest records.

<http://www.wtsbradio.com/pages/localnews.html>

A third person has now been charged in connection with an alleged major drug trafficking investigation. Sandy Maria Gonzales, 27, of Stag Trail, Wendell was arrested Tuesday. On October 5, authorities arrested Jaimes Alfredo Perez, 21, and Hermenegildo Omar-Balmori, 25, at Lot 45 Massengill's Mobile Home Park, on US70 Business near Clayton.

During a search of the mobile home, agents with the US Department of Homeland Security, Johnston County Sheriff's Office and Smithfield Police reportedly seized a handgun, 2.2 ounces of cocaine, and $7,400 in cash.

Perez and Omar-Balmori are charged with four counts of drug trafficking, two counts of conspiracy, and one count of maintaining a dwelling to keep a controlled substance. They are in jail under a $1.25 million bond.

Kenly Man Charged In Attempted KS Bank Robbery

<http://www.wtsbradio.com/pages/localnews.html>

A Kenly man was arrested Tuesday morning a short time after he reportedly tried to rob KS Bank on West Anderson Street in Downtown Selma. An alert bank employee locked the entrance door electronically preventing the would-be robber from entering, according to police.

Officers said 22 year-old Larry Lorenzo Hernandez parked his car at the Selma Train Station, walked several blocks to the bank, and outside the bank door started putting on a ski mask. Once the employee spotted the masked man, she locked the door.

Police said Hernandez was found less than a block away sitting on a bench. When approached by officers, he reportedly said, "Man, I am the person you're lookin' for... I have a BB gun in my bag."

LOUISBURG, N.C. — A Franklin County man who admitted to stabbing his 14-year-old sister to death and stabbing his mother was back home on Thursday after state psychiatrists found he committed the crimes while he was sleepwalking.

In January 2010, Joseph Bravio Mendez was accused of stabbing his mother, Lydia Etanislao, about 20 times while she was sleeping and stabbing and killing his sister, Julianna Mathews.

Mendez, then 18, was charged with murder.

"All of a sudden, I felt a sharp pain and when I looked, I saw him attacking me," Etanislao said Thursday.

After months of testing, Mendez's mother says it became clear he had no memory of the attack. In court, a psychiatrist for the state testified Mendez had been sleepwalking during the stabbings.

"This was a very unique case in that the state's own psychiatrist came to the conclusion that this was a sleepwalking case," Mendez's attorney Boyd Sturges said.

Mendez pleaded guilty to involuntary manslaughter and assault. He was given credit for time served.

CARTHAGE - A Raleigh man will spend at least 5 1/2 years in prison after a Moore County jury convicted him Thursday of fraud-related charges, authorities said.

Demiko Dion Hernandez, 25, was found guilty of attempting to obtain property by false pretense and uttering a counterfeit instrument, according to a release from Maureen Krueger, Moore County district attorney.

Witnesses testified that Hernandez came to the Crescent State Bank in Southern Pines on Nov. 2, 2010, and presented a check written on the account of a Raleigh-based tree service, the release said.

A teller said the check appeared to have been produced with a program often used by counterfeiters, the release said.

When the teller attempted to verify the check, the release said, Hernandez began acting nervous, retrieved the check and left.

Branch employees then issued a warning to other Crescent Banks in the area.

It was after the warning that Hernandez attempted to cash a nearly identical check at a Crescent Bank branch in Sanford, the release said.

Jurors deliberated about an hour before returning the verdict, the release said.

Hernandez then admitted that he had been classified as a habitual felon, having been convicted of at least three prior felony charges, the release said.

Superior Court Judge Joseph E. Turner ordered Hernandez to spend between 5 1/2 and 7 1/2 years in prison.
